Message from Mrs. Holland

This week has flown by! The week started with elections for House Captains and Vice Captains where we had a good number of year 6 and year 2 pupils giving speeches to their Houses. They spoke with such confidence which helped everyone to make their vote. As you can see from the picture below, they all look very proud of their new roles. It was lovely to see some classes meet with their buddies again this week - this has become a highlight for many of our children as the older ones take on the responsibility of looking after the younger ones and the younger ones really look up to them. It is the feast day of our patron saint on Sunday - we will be celebrating in school next Thursday with Mass. Please do try to join us. Have a lovely weekend. Mrs Holland

SMALL SACRIFICE,

FOR LOVE.
