Message from Mrs. Holland

This is a short half term, so even though we are only 2 weeks in, Easter is already in sight! Next Thursday, we have a whole school Mass which you are all welcome to join. The children really do love seeing family members on these occasions so if you are available, please do try to join us. We will also be holding Parents Evening before Easter so please keep an eye on school spider to book your appointment - this will be set up very soon. I would politely like to remind everyone that false nails and/or nail varnish is not permitted in school. We have had a few children come to school with beautiful nails who have very sensibly removed them when asked. Thank you for your support with this. Have a lovely weekend, Mrs Holland.

Spotlight on...

World Book Day

We had a wonderful day on Thursday celebrating all things reading for World Book Day. Not only do children learn vital skills for later reading and writing, but sharing books also helps with talking, listening, and communication skills. There are lots of resources online which are free for parents to access, these can be found on the World Book Day website. Each child received a one pound book token yesterday which they can take to the following retailers to redeem - Your local independent bookseller: Asda, Blackwell's (selected stores only), Sainsburys, Tesco, The Works, Waterstones and WHSmith.

Gospel Quote

For God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not die but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to be its judge, but to be its saviour.

John 3:15

ATTENDANCE MATTERS

Lost minutes = Lost learning

Every school day counts BUT every minute is equally important!
