Message from Mrs. Holland

This week started with a very beautiful Remembrance reflection on Monday morning. The whole school came together for a minutes silence to remember those who have fought and continue to fight for our country. All children were very respectful and thoughtful. The countdown to Christmas has begun as I am beginning to hear nativity songs being practised and lots of donations have been coming in for our Christmas fayre. If you are able to donate any wrapping paper, it would be very much appreciated as this is what we are lacking at the moment. We are also hoping to have a cake stall, so keep a look out for an email requesting cake donations next week! Have a lovely weekend. Mrs Holland
